IS It "Just a Cold"?

Norway People Should Ask Themselves
This Question

Don't say: "It's just a cold."
It may turn into backache, rheumatic aches, aching joints.
Or other serious sickness that comes from weak kidneys.
Colds are due to congestion.
Congestion makes the kidneys overwork to filter the blood.
Colds often leave the kidneys weak.
First break the cold;
Then use Doan's Kidney Pills to avert
the kidney dangers.
Let this Norway resident tell you about them.

W. O. Needham, ret. farmer, 230 Main St., says: "At different times when I have taken a cold my kidneys were affected. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills when I felt that my kidneys needed a tonic. Doan's always strengthened my kidneys and cleared my system of the excessive uric acid. I always feel better in a short time after using this remedy. I always get my supply at F. P.
Stone's Drug Store." (Statement given July 24, 1908.)

On September 3, 1920 Mr. Needham said, "I haven't changed my good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since recommending them many years ago. Doan's benefited me greatly."

A SIX for the Price of a Four!

You can buy a Studebaker LIGHT-SIX today at a four-cylinder price! But you cannot buy Studebaker LIGHT-SIX performance in ANY Four. You get more for your money in the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX than in any other car in the thousand-dollar class. Because:

- (1) Studebaker had the biggest volume in its history in 1921.
- (2) Studebaker sales in 1921 were 29 per cent greater than in 1920 while the total of all other makes was 45 per cent less than in 1920.
- (3) Studebaker is the world's largest builder of six-cylinder cars—builds nothing but sixes.

Studebaker builds the LIGHT-SIX for less than it costs most manufacturers to turn out a four, because it is produced complete in the Studebaker plants.

The average list-price of the better-known fours is $1200. This does not include the high-price fours. The Studebaker LIGHT-SIX Touring Car lists at only $1045.

Studebaker builds economically and sells at a low price because of continuous large volume, efficient production and skillful purchase of materials.

The new low price of the LIGHT-SIX was established without lowering the quality one iota. Its intrinsic value is unsurpassed in the industry, regardless of price. Today's price of the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX is the lowest at which it has ever been sold.

The Oldest Paint in the Newest Form

Dutch Boy Liquid Lead

Liquid Lead is simply the old-fashioned lead-in-oil, ready for use, mixed by the manufacturer of the white-lead instead of by the user. It is white paint and does not come colored, but can be tinted to any desirable color. It has the quality of the best white-lead paint, the convenience of being able to start painting as soon as the can is opened and the satisfaction of using a Dutch Boy product.

Dutch Boy Flat White

When a flat or semi-gloss finish is desired, as for interior walls and woodwork, use Dutch Boy Flat White. This is also a pure white-lead paint, but is designed to give flat effects, delicate in color, rich in tone, yet durable and washable.

Dutch Boy Paint is Economical

because of its great spreading capacity, which makes its cost per square foot less than many paints which cost the same per gallon and also because of its great wearing qualities. As it contains only pure materials and weighs over twenty pounds per gallon, it can be thinned and tinted in any manner desired. Call and investigate or send for a descriptive booklet.

ALLEN—WEST BETHEL

Mrs. Agnes Mason Fernald To be glad to live because it affords an opportunity to love and to work, and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbors except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies and often of your friends.

Such was the character of Agnes Mason Fernald who was laid to rest in Pine Grove Cemetery, West Bethel, Thursday, March 23, 1922.

Born in the hills of Oxford County in the town of Albany, the daughter of William and Hannah Mason. Here she romped in childhood, here she was educated and on completion of her education at Gould's Academy, entered into the field of transmitting to the young mind the principals and theories of education.

In early life she married Hersey Ellsworth Fernald, who was also a product of Albany. Together they journeyed into the larger fields of the busy world and together they labored in the tasks of this life, hand in hand, one an inspiration to the other, and the result has been a union filled with possibilities and crowned with achievements.

Her love for the hills of Oxford County was well known to all her friends. Scarcely a summer passed without a visit to the haunts of her childhood, and now she has left us and her mortal part is at rest in the sacred ground over which she trod in early life.

But her spirit shall live on forever and the memory of her achievements shall be a living memorial in the hearts of all who knew her.

Mrs. Nahum Scribner is not as well as she has been.

Mrs. Helen Tyler is still confined to the house.

W. E. Bartlett of Bethel village was at this place on business recently.

Clinton Norman bought a band of hay of Ernest Brown.

Robert Hill went to Norway after a load of grain.

George Allen who has been helping Calvert Hurlston, also finished work there and is visiting his mother, Mary Allen in Lovell.

Irving Morey has moved his stock from Charles Morey's to Calvert Fullerton's. He will work for Mr. Fullerton this summer we understand. He has some nice Durham stock.

School finished in Bisbee town March 23rd. Miss Whitaker has been a very painstaking teacher and the school has been a very profitable one.

Mrs. Holden Savin who is stopping with her brother, Ernest Wentworth, had the misfortune to scald herself with hot sap.

The engine has been hauled to James Stone's mill in Albany and work commenced in the mill.

Roy Wardwell will commence sawing wood next week. He has a drag saw to saw all the lumber he needs.

James Kimball and son Leon are working a large amount of maple syrup of fine quality.

Robert Stearns

The town was shocked on hearing of the sudden death of Robert Stearns. He lived in the south part of Albany on the farm with his father-in-law, W. B. Cummings. He was a great farmer, a kind and a loving neighbor. He was especially interested in dairy business. A few years ago he bought the Dexter A. Cummings cow-pasture and has been keeping quite a lot of cows. He also built a sugar house on this lot of land.

He will be greatly missed by his fellow townsmen as he has held town office as road commissioner, school committee and one of the selectmen. Most all of the family are sick and have a trained nurse.

He leaves a wife, 3 sons and 1 daughter to mourn their loss. He also leaves many friends and relatives in the town of Bethel, the town of his birth.

He was a member of Round Mountain Grange.

George Cummings has bought a nice pair of large gray horses.

If you are perfectly honest you will admit your opinions on most public questions are formed by your pocketbook.

EAST FRYEBURG.

Real Talent

The pretty drama by Walter Baker, "Down by the Sea" was given by members of East Fryeburg Grange a few weeks ago to a crowded house and so many were unable to gain admittance, by request it was repeated last week again to a crowded hall. To say the parts were all well taken, would not half express the genuine talent displayed. Mrs. William Berry as Mrs. Gale (a difficult part) was fine, and Mrs. Spencer, her daughter, "Kittie" a real coquette, took the part to perfection and it was hard to realize she was more than "sweet sixteen." Miss Lord, the school teacher, as a wealthy heiress, acquitted herself so true to first love she won the hearts of the large audience. Enoch Pike as "Pa Gale" certainly showed he was not any stranger to the stage and won much praise. Mr. Spencer, who also had a difficult part, that of Mr. Raymond, a wealthy summer boarder, won admiration from all. Perley Smith (and his "wart") surely showed he was not a novice on the stage, and all were ready to believe Perley had played the part of a lover for many years. It was most difficult for the friends of Philip Walker to believe it was his first experience in love-making, he was so natural and easy in showing his preference for the pretty "schoolmarm." Ralph Libby, the wise old pedler, who held the key to the whole situation, was excellent although in fear of his life when "mother Gale" learned of his presence. Last, but by no means least to come in for applause and praise was "March Gale," impersonated by Wilton Warren, who was excellent, notwithstanding his many trials and tribulations in trying to establish his identity, and also to keep numerous rivals from his attractive sweetheart. Wilton made such a hit that he was called to Boston on the next train after the last performance of "Down by the Sea." Whether to make an engagement with a theatrical manager or some other engagement was not announced. A fine orchestra played for dancing for two hours after the play. Ice cream was served. There was only one drawback to the play which was lack of space on the stage. It is hoped the company will come to Fryeburg and present "Down by the Sea" a little later.

The snow is going fast, crows are very plenty, getting ready for the corn fields. Clayton Tower is at his grandmother's, Mrs. Ann Meader's, sick with the gripple. George Guptill is working at the store for Perley Brown.

"Ladies and Gentlemen of Norway and South Paris:

"I have been engaged in the making of motion pictures for a number of years, during which time I have made a great many productions. But of all the pictures I have made, the one that has caused me wholly unalloyed delight, is my picturization of Will Carleton's celebrated 'Farm Ballad' called 'Over the Hill.'"

"If ever a motion picture could truly be said to have a soul, then 'Over the Hill' comes nearest that description. I have stood night after night in the darkness of a New York theatre while it was being screened, and I have seen men and women respond to its tremendous surge of emotion and its sparkling shafts of humor, as a harp responds to the musician who plays it."

"I have always attributed the extraordinary success of this picture to the fact that it possesses, to an uncanny degree, some indescribable element that no other motion picture has ever possessed, for, despite its beautiful story and the manner of its presentation, no one can see 'Over the Hill' without thinking—why, this is me and you, and all of us. Here we are with all our meanness, our pettiness, our cowardice, and here, too, we are with all our fineness, our generosity and our nobility."

"To me 'Over the Hill' is more than a mere motion picture. It is so frank an exposition of our inner selves that we cannot behold it without really being startled."

"The principal character of its story is a mother—a sweet, wholesome, little old personage, who, like every other mother that ever lived, is made the recipient of all the joys and sorrows, particularly the sorrows—of her thoughtless little flock. And I am sure, if you see the picture, you will think as I did when I first beheld it, of that old proverb that runs 'God couldn't be every place at once, so He made mothers.'"

"Respectfully yours, WILLIAM FOX."

SPRING AILMENTS

Impure Blood, Humors,—Relief in a Good Medicine.

Spring ailments are due to impure, thin, devitalized blood.

Among them are pimples, boils, other eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, nervousness and "all run-down" conditions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the roots, bark, herbs, berries and other medicinals that have been found in many years of intelligent observation to be most effective in the treatment of these ailments.

Successful physicians prescribe the same ingredients for diseases of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and in cases where alternative and tonic effects are needed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the spring medicine that purifies, enriches and revitalizes your blood, increasing power of resistance to disease.

For a laxative take Hood's Pills.

HE FEELS LIKE DIFFERENT MAN STATES BAILEY

Stomach Trouble Gone and He Eats Anything on the Table Now Says Portland Citizen—Had Suffered for Many Years.

"It didn't take Tanlac long to get in its good work with me, for I was feeling like a different man before I had finished the first bottle," said William A. Bailey, 16 Whitney St., Portland, Me.

"For a long time I didn't know what it was to sit down and enjoy a meal as I was sure to have an attack of indigestion after eating. I got so I didn't dare touch pork, steak or cabbage as they acted like poison on me."

"Tanalac, to all intents and purposes, has given me a new stomach and now I eat anything I want and never am bothered afterwards with indigestion. Tanlac surprised me a good deal, too, by ridding me of another trouble that had been bothering me for years and that is constipation. In fact, it just made a different man out of me and I feel fine all the time."

Buick First Again In Yellowstone Park!

Each year since Yellowstone Park was opened to automobile travel by the U. S. Government, more Buicks have made this difficult trip than any other car excepting Ford.

The figures for 1921, just announced, show 1871 Buicks passed through the Park during that season, 412 more than any other make.

The Yellowstone Park tour calls for every ounce of car performance—miles away from service for days at a time—the car must never fail. And that is why each year an increasing number of Park tourists depend on Buick.

Buick cars measure up to Buick reputation.

Four children were born to them, Herbert E., Postmaster at Redding, Merton M. of Redding, Mrs. Mark B. Richardson of West Paris and Clifton, who died five years ago. She will be laid to rest in the cemetery near her home to wait the call of the life giver.

I will not fear at His coming, Although I must meet Him alone; He will look in my eyes so gently, And take me into His own.

LOVELL

Charles H. True, aged 80, passed on to a better life, in Portland, March 10th, after a short illness. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Carl D. Moody, three grandchildren, Richard, Charles T. and Ruth D. Moody; a sister, Miss Lucy True, and a niece, Fannie, lives in Boston, where he visited them just before his last illness. Mr. True retired from active business life about ten years ago and bought a fine place in Lovell where he has resided since that time. He was very happy and interested in improving the home, working in his gardens and cultivating flowers, of which he was very fond. His many callers cordially welcomed and greatly enjoyed going over the fine old colonial home which was much admired by all. Mr. True was a very energetic man for one of his years and thought nothing of going to the village and back, a distance of five miles. Recently he set a lot of young plum and apple trees in which he took as much pride as a young man just beginning life. Only a few hours before his death, he talked of Lovell and of what he was to do when he got there. His was a good life, always thinking of something fine and beautiful, ever ready to aid in any good work and to do all he could for one in trouble. His townsmen will miss him, and his neighbors will miss his cheery calls, his lively chats and his happy hospitalities in his home. He is gone, but he leaves the world better for his living and he will always be remembered with affection by all who knew him.

He was a member of Kezar Valley Lodge of Odd Fellows, Lake Kezar Encampment I. O. of O. F. and of the K. P. Lodge. He was a member of the Odd Fellows attended in a body and he was laid at rest by the members of that order he loved so well. The floral tributes were many and bore silent tribute to the love and respect in which he was held.

Healthier Livestock • Better Milk

The dairyman can protect the health of his livestock, keep disease away, secure a better quality of milk, increase the value of his livestock and the size of his cream checks.

How? By disinfecting stables, pens, troughs, mangers, and livestock thoroughly with Fecto; by using Fecto to disinfect the udders of cows, the hands of milkers, milking machines, pails, cans, bottles, vats, separators, strainers, and all receptacles used in the handling and shipping of milk.

Fecto kills the germs of disease and of decay, destroys foul odors, sterilizes and purifies milk receptacles, making them sweet and clean.

Fecto is a clean, colorless, non-poisonous liquid; is ten times more powerful as a germ-destroyer than carbolic acid. Fecto is the ideal disinfectant and sterilizer for use on the farm, dairy, or creamery, because it is non-poisonous when properly diluted; because it does not leave a disagreeable odor; because it is economical.
